1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee staff, who called my attention to a [REDACTED] article this morning concerning the Director's testimony [REDACTED] before the Committee. He seemed to be very upset about the leak and said he was sending the Chairman a note on it. I told him the Director was beginning to have reservations about his ability to continue to provide classified information to committees of Congress and Brady said he would put that in his note to the Chairman also.

2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Chuck Snodgrass, on the staff of the House Appropriations Committee, who wanted to know if we could provide him with a copy of the Senate Select Committee report on assassinations. He said he had tried the Select Committee but they have no copies to give out. After checking, I told him we had no extra copies but that GPO would have them on Monday. He appreciated my checking.

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Dorothy Fosdick, on the staff of the Senate Government Operations Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, called and said that Senator Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) wanted her and Richard Perle, also of that staff, to have a briefing from Carl Duckett (DDS&T) first thing Monday morning on SALT I and the whole question of compliance. I told her I would check with Duckett.

5. [ ] LIAISON Took a call from Allen Yuspeh, on the staff of Senator Bennett Johnston (D., La.), who wanted us to provide the Senator with the transcript of the Director's testimony on [ ] capabilities before the House International Relations Committee. After consulting with Mr. Cary, I called Yuspeh back and suggested to him that we could work something out along the lines of a briefing for the Senator. Yuspeh said that this would be fine, but that if possible the Senator would also like to see the text of the prepared statement for the House International Relations Committee.

6. [ ] CONSTITUENT I took a call from Sheridan Crawford, on the staff of Representative John Krebs (D., Calif.), regarding a constituent inquiry into covert action. After a brief discussion it appeared that the constituent's inquiry was a serious one and could not be answered over the phone. I, therefore, asked Ms. Crawford to forward a copy of the letter to us and we would respond with something she could forward to the constituent.

7. [ ] BRIEFING I met and accompanied Rick Gilmore, on the staff of the Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to a briefing in [ ] office, OER, on Soviet grain as background for Gilmore's impending trip to Moscow. He also asked and was given tactical information on who to approach and how best to arrange it. He was given a publication entitled "Grain Handling Capability at Soviet Ports," for which he signed a receipt.

8. [ ] LIAISON I stopped by the office of the Joint Committee on Printing to talk to Denver Dickerson, on the staff of the Committee, regarding the Federal Depository Library Program of the GPO. However, Mr. Dickerson was in conference all day and I was unable to see him.

9. [ ] LIAISON I dropped by the office of Senator John A. Darkin (D., N. H.) to discuss his inquiry regarding the address of an Agency employee. However, he was away from the Hill and would not return until after the Thanksgiving recess.

13. [ ] LEGISLATION After a discussion with Mr. Cary, called Jim Oliver, OMB, in response to his call of yesterday and advised him that it was the strong opinion of the Agency that the figure of Agency retirees under CIARDS not be disclosed. Oliver accepted the position and felt certain that our legislative people would not press this matter further.
